SUDDEKOR, LLC JOINS NALFA

WASHINGTON [date] - Suddekor, LLC has recently joined the North American Laminate Flooring Association (NALFA) as an Associate Member. Through its membership, the company is helping to shape the future of the laminate flooring industry in North America and internationally.

Suddekor, LLC, an international leader in the decorative paper printing industry, is a rotogravure printer that supplies decorative paper to the North American laminate industry.

NALFA Associate Members are corporations, partnerships, proprietorships or other entities that are regularly engaged in the business of selling goods or services provided by manufacturers, marketers or importers of laminate flooring in North America. The organization currently has 19 Associate Members and 10 Regular Members. For membership information, visit www.nalfa.com to fill out a membership inquiry or call (202) 785-9500.

Formed in 1997, the North American Laminate Flooring Association is an organization of U.S. and Canadian manufacturers and importers of laminate flooring products. NALFA's mission is to encourage the establishment and maintenance of high standards in laminate flooring in North America, to recognize those that meet these standards and to recognize Associate Members who provide products and services to the laminate flooring industry.
